

What's news @rtlegal

Welcome to 2019 - 'Upwards and onwards'!

We are all familiar with the negative side of being busy. The combination of too much work to do, with too little time, is a great way to stress yourself out.

With the advent of a new year upon us, a new beginning brings challenges and opportunities to start afresh. Although Rosetta and Piero worked during the Christmas Break, Danni and Laura had the opportunity of an enjoyable break. Danni went to Phillip Island to catch up with Family and Friends and Laura went to Kennett River for some rest and recreation.

All of us in the office have refuelled our engines, we are ready keen and eager to embrace the year ahead with vigour and enthusiasm. This endeavour will help drive us to further grow and develop our client relationships throughout the year.

One of our focus areas at RTLegal is that we always strive to continue to build strong and trustworthy relationships with our clients.

Lastly, for those of you who are not aware, we are also providing updates, pictures and articles about our team via our social network profiles. You can find us on Instagram, LinkedIn and Facebook by searching RTLegal. Go to Instagram today to look at our new pens and feel free to pop in and collect a pen and or a note pad.

We wish you all a happy healthy and fruitful 2019 and we look forward to supporting you with our exceptional service and meaningful client engagement in the year ahead.
